You can click anywhere within the boxed area of a project to see all correspondence. This includes review, status log notifications, and inspections for this specific job.

If you are unable to find a project based on a search initiated in the search boxes, try searching the numbered portion of the address only. The system is very particular about spacing and/or spellings so it may not find an address if not input correctly (as the system wants it). Or you can clear your filters in the search boxes and select from the results

You will only see projects that have you listed for the project. If the project was originally submitted by an architect or engineer, and the project needs to be moved to your name (a contractor portal account will need to be created prior to requesting the move), a written request can be sent to planreview@westmetrofire.org. Please include the project address and job number.
